Card/Gift Card Baby Shower for Isong & Shanice Mbah:

Many of you may remember Isong Mbah who came here from Cameroon, worshipped with us here, joined the Army, and now serves and lives with his wife, Shanice, at Ft. Sill, OK. They just had a new baby boy, also named Isong. Linda Hall has been there helping them out and you're invited to help them also by sending encouraging cards and/or donating funds for baby expenses. You may give greeting cards, cash donations or Walmart gift cards to Linda, Christy Riblett or Kim Atchison by next Sunday. If you'd prefer to send a card or gift on your own, their address is posted in the foyer.

The $10/person registration fee and Emergency Contact Form need to be turned in by Sunday, February 12th. Other meals will primarily be provided by University coC. We should return to Riverside on Sunday, February 19th, between 3pm and 4pm. Please contact Jorel Johnson for more details.

THEME: "RE-ENGAGE"

OPPORTUNITIES TO SERVE

SE2023 HOUSING NEEDS: Everyone who has graciously opened up their homes in the past and many first-timers are asked to please meet the housing needs of our guests. Volunteers are also asked to provide breakfast on Saturday and Sunday mornings and transportation to and from Riverside. So please prayerfully consider serving our brothers and sisters in this way for an experience that will bless both them and you!

"Official" forms will be distributed next month; in the meantime, please sign up now in the foyer so we have an early idea of how much housing we have to offer. For more details please contact Nancy Jacobs or Jorel Johnson. Thank you!

Financial Help for Ukrainian Refugees: Donations can still be made through Riverside's CRE (Christian Relief Effort) fund. Just put "CRE-Ukraine" or "Ukraine" in the memo section of your check or cash envelope.
